

Gemini

Gemini

22nd May – 21st June

Element Air ~ Quality Mutable

Charge Positive ~ Ruling Planet Mercury ~ Day Woden

Generous and affectionate Gemini is the third sign of the heavenly Zodiac and is ruled by Mercury, the planet and Archetype of Knowledge, Language and the swiftness of the Soul. Mercury is the quick, lively and favoured messenger of the Gods, who is also known as Thoth in the rich Egyptian culture and Hermes in the colourful Greek mythos.

Gemini is Latin for "twins". This is prevalent in the mutable aspect of the sign in its inherent duality, also giving Geminians an impulsive and quick-witted streak in nature. Geminians are chameleon-like in their ability to blend in with any environment, and can also be the centre of attention and the Life of the party!

Gemini governs communications of all kinds; intellectual matters, gossip, news and information. The importance of holding truth rather than fiction is paramount to Geminians within their ingenious codes of conduct. Individuals of Gemini multiply the flow of other people's energy, bringing a unique perspective to the path of the Beholder.

The personality of Gemini has amongst the treasures an excellent wit and very sharp powers of observation. All modes of communication are valued including arts, crafts, design, writing, spoken word, music and magic. Nothing stands in the way of victory within business and personal matters alike.

Feelings are fascinating and at times hard to handle, although this comes down to individual experience. Frustration and restlessness can occur when matters move too slowly and boredom can settle quickly when there is not enough variety. When times are tough and spirits low, then Geminians have little faith in themselves and can often feel deflated when out of the limelight. However due to their dual nature, the shift back into the joyous is within easy reach.

Gemini rules the hands, arms, lungs, thymus gland and upper ribs. Favourite colours are yellow and light blue. The Geminian birthstone is the agate, streaked with multi-faceted colours, mirroring the Geminian form. Gemini flowers are the lilac, azalea, and lily-of-the-valley.

Within the wonderfully vibrant mythology of the Greek culture, Gemini is associated with the twins Castor and Pollux. The twins are also known as the Dioscuri.

One myth connects the twins to cattle theft. The Milky Way was seen as a herd of dairy cows, with one of the twins residing inside the Milky Way and the other outside of it, thus making it appear that one of the twins is stealing cattle with the other twin looking on. The Milky Way represented as a herd of cattle also links in with the origin of the myth of the cattle of Geryon, which forms one of The Twelve Labours of Heracles.

Concerning the Twins, because Castor was mortal he passed away, so Pollux begged Zeus, their father to give Castor immortality. Zeus honoured the compassionate twins by uniting them together in the heavenly sea of Sky.

In Babylonian astronomy the stars of Gemini are known as the Great Twins (MUL.MASH.TAB.BA.GAL.GAL). They were regarded as minor Gods and were called Meshlamtaea and Lugalirra, meaning respectively 'The One who has arisen from the Underworld' and the 'Mighty King.' Both names are akin to Nergal, the major Babylonian god of plague and pestilence who is also the King of the Underworld.

In Chinese astronomy Gemini twins were known as;

The White Tiger of the West (西方白虎, Xī Fāng Bái Hǔ)

The Vermillion Bird of the South (南方朱雀, Nán Fāng Zhū Què)
